A message from our Student Support Officer (SSO):

Hi everyone!

I hope you are all safe and well.

My name is Lily Watson, my pronoun is (She/Her) and I am the new Student Support Officer (SSO) at Coomealla High School.

I wish to acknowledge the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, the first Australians, whose lands, winds and waters are all now share. Today, I sit on Barkindji land and I pay my respect to their unique values, and their continuing and enduring cultures which deepen and enrich the life of our community.

Week 8, Term 3

SSO is a new role being rolled out across all NSW public high schools over the next 3 years, Coomealla is lucky enough to be one of the first to be allocated an SSO. I work Monday to Friday within the school's wellbeing team.

My role is to help students feel safe, supported, connected, and motivated to be the best they can be.

This will be through individual meetings, casual chats, group activities, referrals to other supports, school events, social and emotional coaching.

Most importantly through doing my research, to make sure I am listening everyone in the school community including teachers, parents and students to ensure that the programs and support I am delivering is targeted and going to make a real difference to those involved.

I will be working with staff and students across the school, as well as engaging with parents and external services outside of school.

I am not a counsellor, or a teacher. My background is in Social Work.

I have a Bachelor in Human Services and a Masters in Social Work and since graduating was employed at a local Family Violence and Sexual Assault Support agency.

I have worked with a diverse range of individuals in my career from diverse range of ages, genders and cultures. Supporting them to tackle a bunch of issues including bullying, self-esteem, anxiety, depression, safety, stress, social issues, referrals to psychologists, time management, goal setting, self-harming and suicide and confidence building, legal issues, financial issues, housing issues, family issues, internet safety and sexual health and safety.

If I can't help, I will endeavour to help find someone who can.

I am excited to work as an SSO, because I love seeing young people achieve their goals and overcome challenges.

The students I have met so far are awesome and alongside fellow staff, have really helped me feel welcomed back at Coomealla High School, as I am an ex-student myself.

I want to continue to help foster the positive culture I've experienced here. For people who haven't found their place yet, or are not enjoying school, I'd also love to work together to find ways to change that, so that every single person feels safe, respected, valued and equal in school and beyond.

It's a pleasure to e-meet you.

I look forward to getting to know you more, learning from you, and working together to help students achieve and believe in their best, no matter what.

If you want to have a chat please fell free to call me on (03) 5027 4506 or email me at lily.watson2@det.nsw.edu.au.

Stay safe and I will see you around soon.
